

List of UPCES courses offered in Spring 2023 (in alphabetical order)

Behavioral Finance (IEF)
CEE Economic Growth and Development (IEF)
Comprehending the Holocaust
Czech Culture and Society: Literary Perspective (originally Czech Culture and Society 1918 – 2018 Seen from the Perspective of Vaclav Havel’s Life and Work)
Digital Currencies and Cryptocurrencies (IEF)
Economic History of Central and Eastern Europe (IEF)
Economics of Transition (IEF)
Elementary Czech Language mandatory
European-American Relations in the 21st Century
Film as a Mirror of History, Ideology, and Individual Freedom
Human Rights in Central and Eastern Europe
Ideas Behind Politics: Communism, Post-Communism, and Civil Society in Central Europe
Meet the Europeans: Politics and Society in the European Union (originally European Integration and Politics of Belonging in Europe)
Prague as a Living History: Anatomy of a European Capital
Propaganda and Society
Psychoanalysis and Cultural Studies
Surveillance in Central and Eastern Europe: Social Control Methods Before and After Communism
Urban Anthropology of Central European Cities

The list of courses is based on preferences on UPCES applications.
Courses without sufficient enrollment will not be offered.
The agenda is subject to change.