
Lucia Stefankova (lucia.stefankova@cerge-ei-cz)

Education

- 2012-2006 PhD Candidate in Cultural Theory. Charles University in Prague, School of Arts and Science.
- 2003-2002 Fulbright Scholar. Boston University, School of Arts and Science, Boston, USA. Postgradual study Scholarship in Cultural and American Studies.
- 2001-1996 MA in Cultural Studies.
MA in Marketing Communication.
Comenius University in Bratislava , Slovakia. School of Arts and Science, Bratislava.
- 2000-1999 New York University, College of Arts and Science, New York, USA. Undergraduate Exchange program in Cultural studies.

Teaching Experience

- 2011-2012 Introduction to Urban Anthropology. A course in School of Arts and Science at Charles University in Prague.

Research

- PhD Thesis: Multiculturalism in Urban Anthropology: Exemple of expat community in Prague.
- Expat Spouses in Amsterdam. Participant oservation of expat spouses' lifestyle in Amsterdam, Netherlands, 2009-2010.
- Slovak Community in Lausanne: Subculture Life and Traditions. Participant observation and oral histories. Lausanne, Switzerland, 2008.
- Czech and Slovak Imigrants in Boston, US: Oral Histories of Imigrants Who Left Communist Czecho-Slovakia before Velvet Revolution in 1989.
- Beginnings of American Urban Anthropology. Urban Anthropology in the First Half of the 20TH Century – The Work of Robert Redfield.
- Acholi People in Uganda, Africa. Under the supervision of Prof. Parker Shipton from the Anthropology Department at BU. The goal of the project was to revitalize and reconstruct an unfinished fieldwork of anthropologist Paula Foster in Sudan and Uganda.
- MA Thesis: Development of Cultural Consumption and Popular Culture. Analysis of the cultural consumption from its beginnings until today – with a case studies of department stores Macy's in New York City and Polus City Center in Bratislava.

Languages

English – Fluent

Slovak – Fluent

German – Basic knowledge

French – Basic knowledge